

A Storyteller

for

Eid-al-Fitr

A Selection of Islamic stories and Arabian Tales

And some Arabic Dance too!

Eid-al-Fitr falls on 2nd October 2008. (Programme available for September 2008)

Tales drawn from Iraq, Palestine, Iran, Morocco, Tadjikistan and from the traditional Arabian, Islamic and Nasuruddin

“Tricia entranced the children with the intricate tale of “Yunus and the Well of Sweetness,” which involved adventure, romance and dancing.”

Tracy Newell, Beulah Nursery and Infant School

The Programme

A selection of tales interspersed with interactive dance intervals

Foundation The Swirling Hijaab

Yr 1&2 Princess and the Mouse, The Jumping Frogs, Nabil's New Trainers

Yr 3&4 Ghaddar the Ghoul, A Nest and a Web, The Pomegranate Tree

Yr 5&6 Yunus and the Well of Sweetness, Sasha Mansor and the Storks, A Nest and a Web.

Sessions timings: - Foundation Stage 30m Older year groups 45-60m.

Programmes may be subject to alteration.

“Every story captivated the audience and the 45 minutes raced by!”